How to measure yourself:

- All you need is a soft tape measure to take your measurements along with a paper and pen to write them down. We recommend saving your measurements on your phone so you can have them readily available when you're shopping on MITCHA.COM
- In order to determine proper fit, we recommend taking your chest, waist, and hip measurements then compare them to the designer's size guide.
- Be sure the measuring tape is held straight and snug (not too tight or loose).
- Bust/chest: Measure around the fullest part of your chest.

(This measurement is not the same as your bra band size)

- Waist: Hold the end of the tape at your belly button and wrap around your waist to the front. This is an important measurement for high-waist skirts and fitted tops.
- Hip: Measure around the widest point of your hips and buttocks.
